The integration is done, but there is a problem with the IOInfo List (i.e. warnings), they are filled till the ImportResult object is returned by the service method, but the result in editor does not contain any warnings. Everything is serializable and can be written in a file, but it is not transmitted.

KL 2017-05-12 (not sure if still an open issue):

der Ris Import funktioniert jetzt bei mir lokal im Editor.

Den InputStreamReader muss man durch ein byte Array ersetzen, da der inputStreamReader nicht serealisierbar ist, das müssen wir uns dann für größere Files noch optimieren.
Aber es funktioniert jetzt erstmal.
