Severity:	normal
Description
copied from #7415 : Can we reduce the space between the 3 fields? Usually I like this but here I think it is better to be compact.~~
Two thing to do here:
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Do not show space for Uri element when there is no exception• Show the complete exception when there is one

- Description updated

- Target version changed from Reviewed Next Major Release to Release 5.6

The space is reserved by the URI element for error messages when parsing the URI.
