Tested for a new infraspecific name with new genus with new reference and new species epithet with new article in new journal. Added orthographical variant.

Seems to be implemented in a generic way, user guidance is straight forward and very helpful.

Ticket might be closed.

DTO is an acronym for Data Transfer Object. The *DTO labels should be transformed into something more user friendly of course.

I propose creating a new ticket for this remaining issue: #7962

I think we can close this ticket if this was the only remaining open task, do you agree?
