| Severity: | normal | | |
| Description | | | |
| For now it could look like this: | | | |
| There is a label showing the current sortindex | | | |
| e.g. "Order: 1" | | | |
| with buttons for "+", "-" and delete beside. | | | |
| <ul style="list-style-type: none">• increments, - decrements and delete removes it. | | | |
| Alternatively we can have a field that only allows integer and can be edited directly by the user. But I think that buttons are still helpful. | | | |
| Additionally the order in the factual data view should be according to the sort index value. If this is more difficult to implement this could become a separate ticket. | | | |
