| currently it appears at the beginning. But this is only the case for the current editing. When a other value is added the value added before is in correct oder. Another order could be to sort by value (increasing value order), but not sure if this is wanted. |              |                          |           |
